

The arrival of certain Ouellet-te famillies in the Acadie des terres et fôrtets

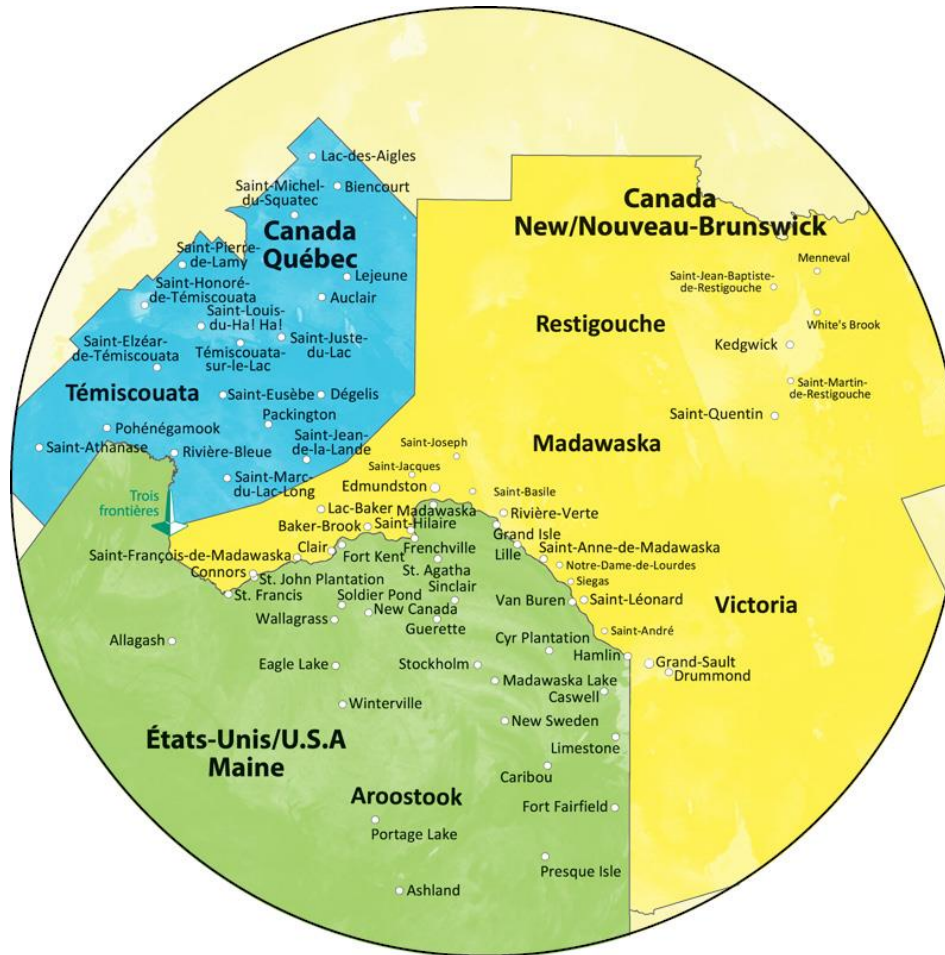

Some historical facts on Acadie

Some historical facts on the Acadie

- 1755-Acadian deportation from Grand-Pré (Nova Scotia) and the attack of Fort Beauséjour by Monkton. Some of them join the Canadians in Quebec by the Saint-John river. Others stopped and formed a community called Sainte-Anne des Pays-Bas (Fredericton).
- 1759-Québec becomes an english territory 200 acadians are coming back from Quebec and stop at St-Basile: first try to establish a community.

- Madawaska area includes the Aroostook valley (Maine) up to the Temiscouata Lake (Quebec).
- Pierre Lizotte stays all winter in the Madawaska area.
- 1782-1786-The land of the Acadians that were established at Kennebecassis (near Sussex) were chased by the Loyalists.

Territory of Acadie des terres et forêts called at that time Madawaska

- 1785-Petition from Louis Mercure to obtain the lands of Madawaska, arrival in June of the Acadians that also were chased from Sainte-Anne des Pays-Bas (Fredericton) :first permanent community establishment in Madawaska area.
- 1790-52 lands were given to colonisers in Madawaska.
- 1792-catholic parish is opened and is named Saint-Basile.

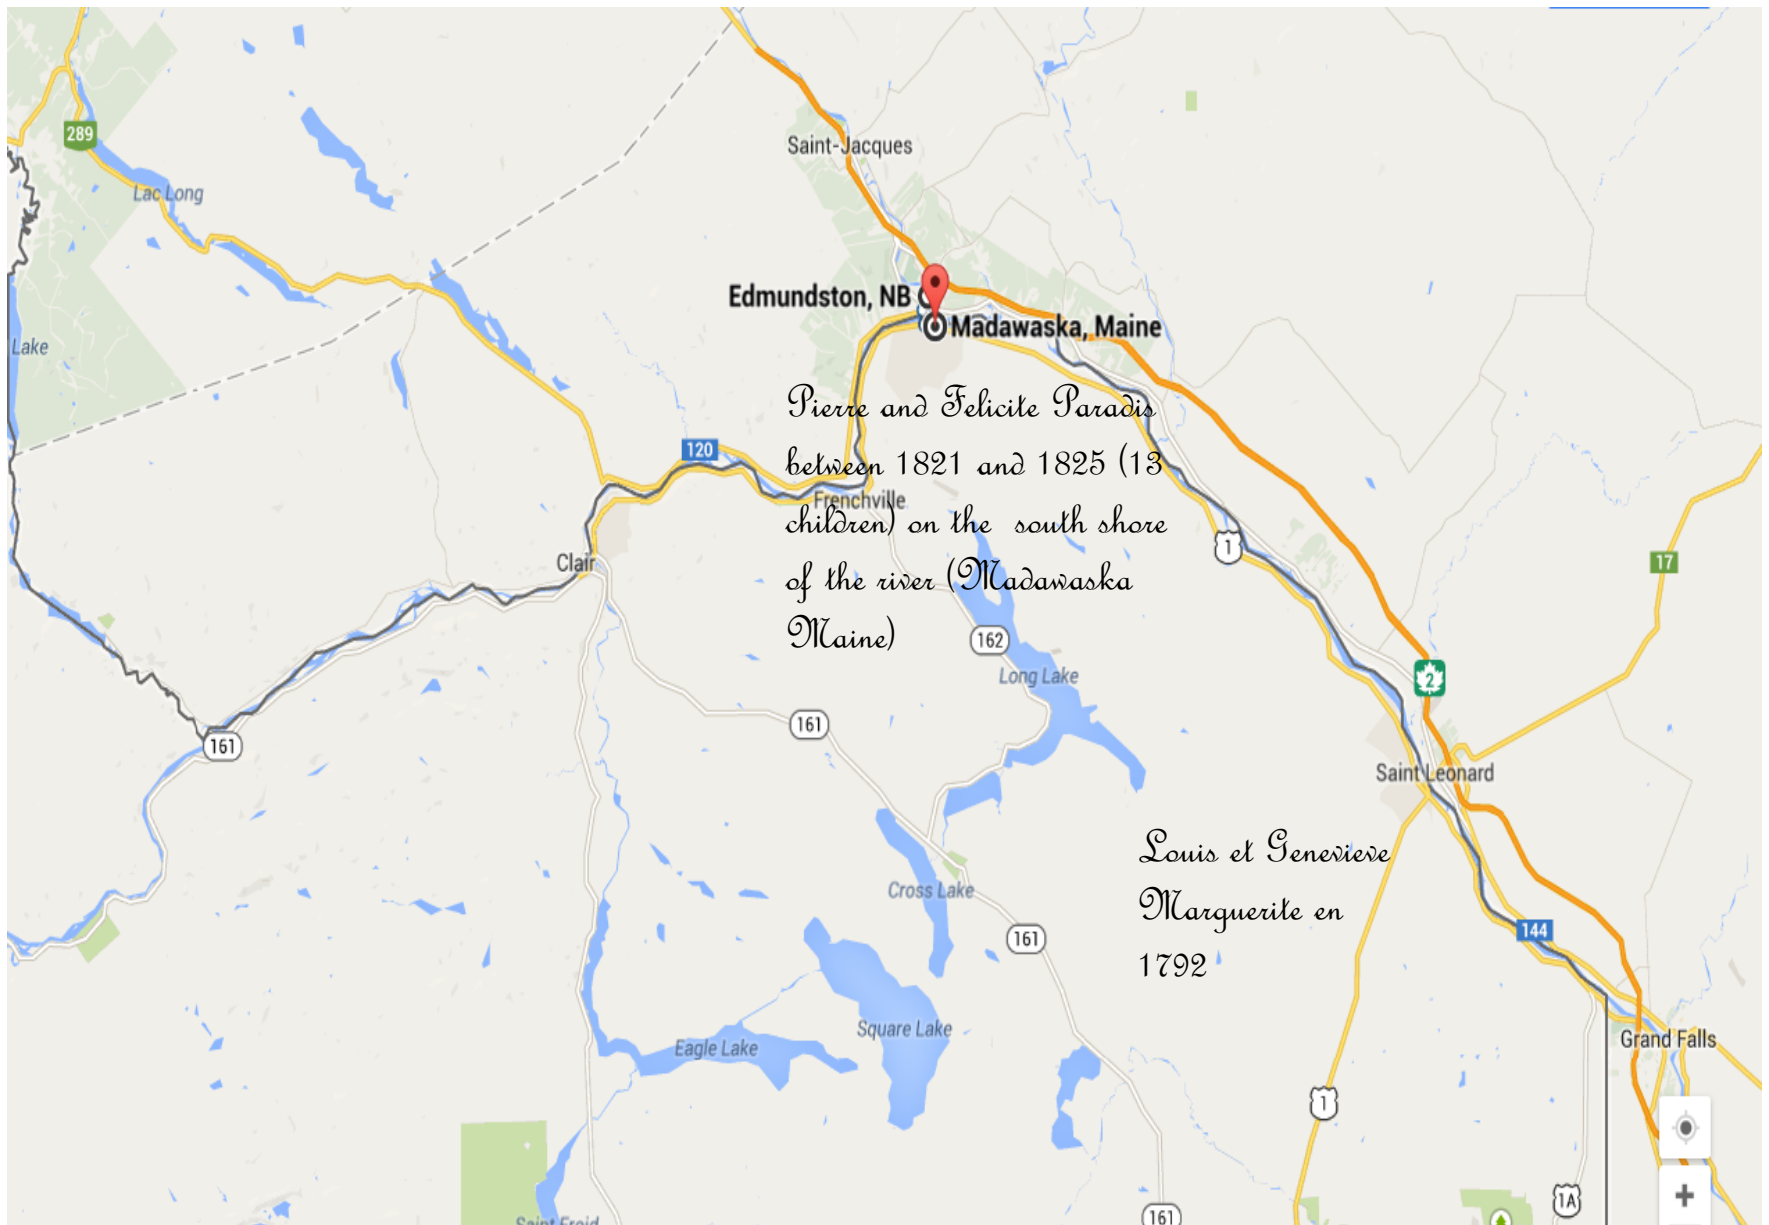

Arrival of the Ouellet-te family

- 1792-Louis Ouellette marry Geneviève-Marguerite Cyr june 1792 in Saint-Basile. He seems to be the first to settle in the area. That union gives life to at least 7 childrens that also were married in Saint-Basile from 1819 to 1830.
- 1821-Pierre, brother of Louis arrived with his wife Marie-Félicité Paradis and their 14 childrens and settled in Frenchville. Two of their daughters are already married and they followed their parents.

Louis et Geneviève Marguerite Cyr (Mathurin-René)

- Marguerite is tante Blanche's daughter (mid-wife that is a hero in the area)
- They had 12 childrens and 7 of them had childrens also.
- They had a land granted in the southern part of Madawaska (near Rivière-Verte) than moved southern on what is now Van Buren Maine.
- Their grand-children are baptised in Saint-Bruno of Van Buren, than we lose the sign of their presence (birth of a daughter of Jean-Marie and Rosalie Cyr in 1837).

First lot granted to Pierre Ouellette

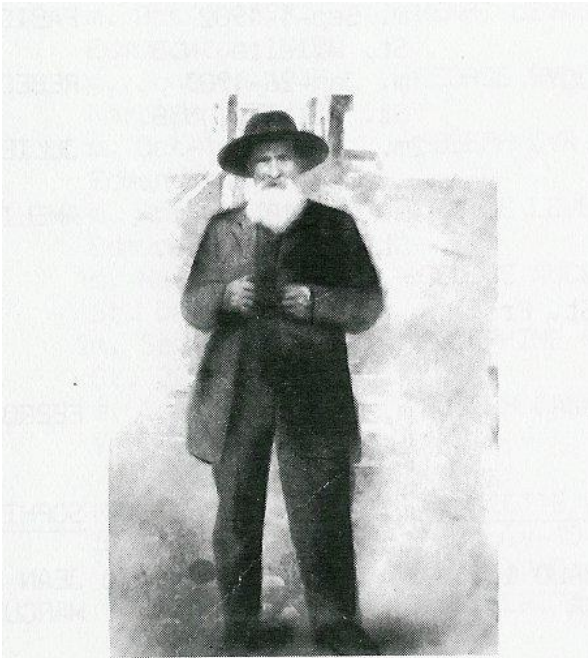

Jean-Baptiste son of Pierre

- Jean-Baptiste (son of Pierre, nephew of Louis) is the ancestor of the larger family of Ouellet-te to settle in l'Acadie des terres et forêts). He married Marguerite Nadeau in 1841 and Henriette Nadeau in 1867 and had 20 children.
- Pierre and Félicité Paradis had other son but there descendants were mostly girls that enriched the area with other family names such as: Pelletier, Vaillancourt, Beaulieu, Dumont, Moreau, Roy, Lacombe, Thériault, Berneche, Sirois-Duplessis.

Some information on J-Baptiste family

- Salomon/Anselme/Paul/Real Ouellette is still living on lot 11 in Edmundston (Verret Office).
- Belonie and Vitaline Paradis stayed in Maine et had 7 children: Olive married Policarpe Pelletier, Joseph married Scolastique Picard and had 7 children (5 boys).
- This big family settled on both side of Saint-John river and is a good example of the relationship between the residents living in Maine USA and their cousins in Madawaska county (New-Brunswick) and Témiscouata county (Quebec).
